1990 REGINA MARIS

Salve Regina College

Newport, Rhode Island

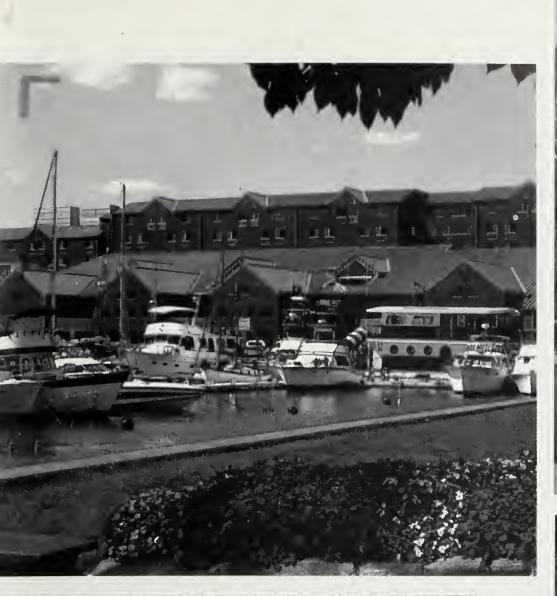

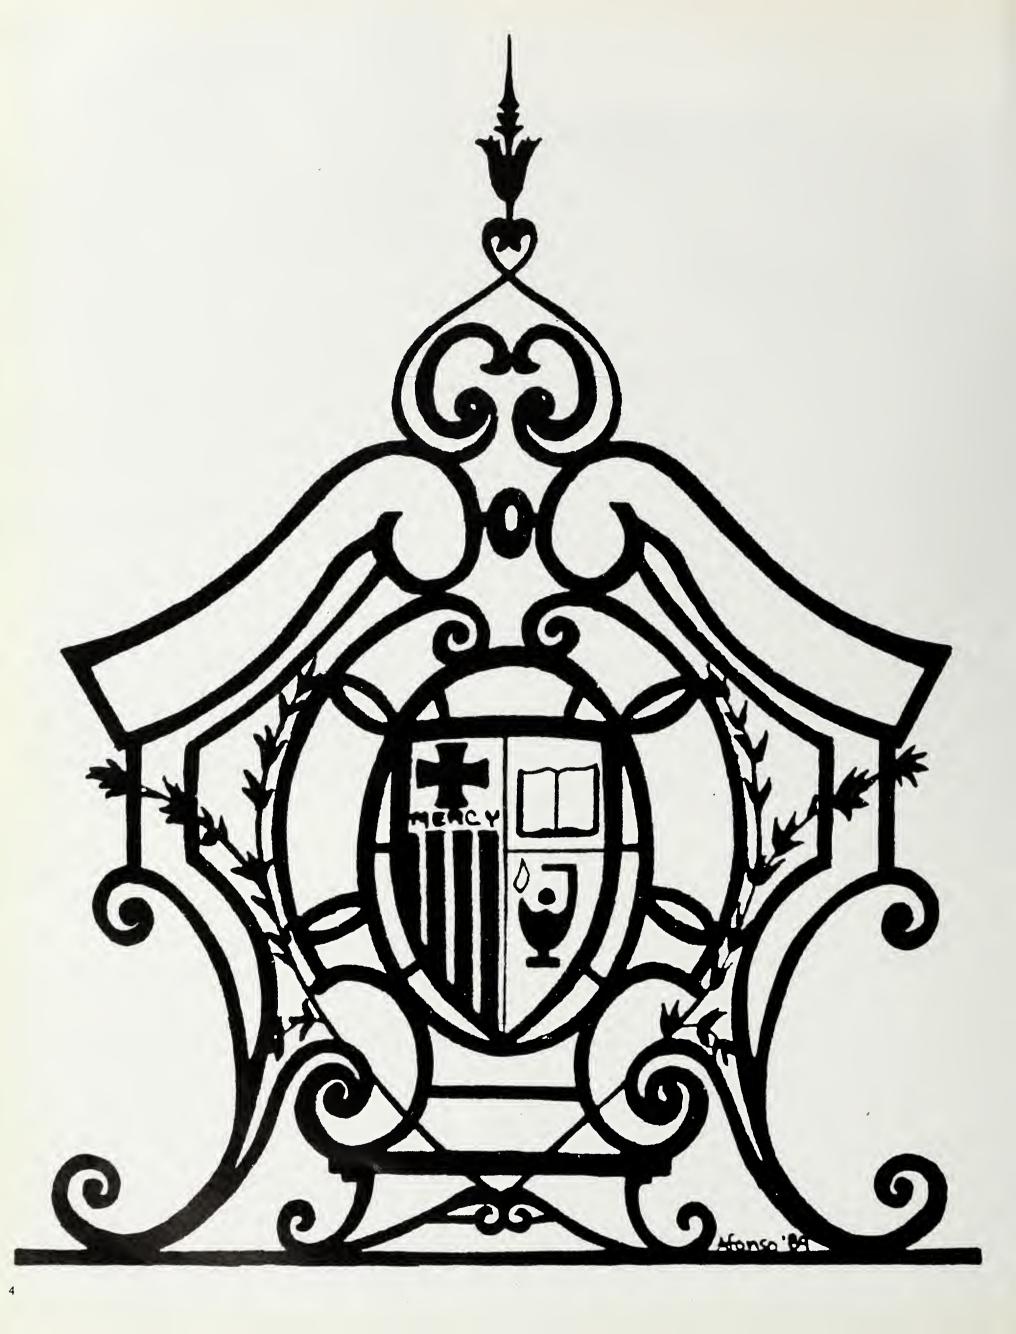

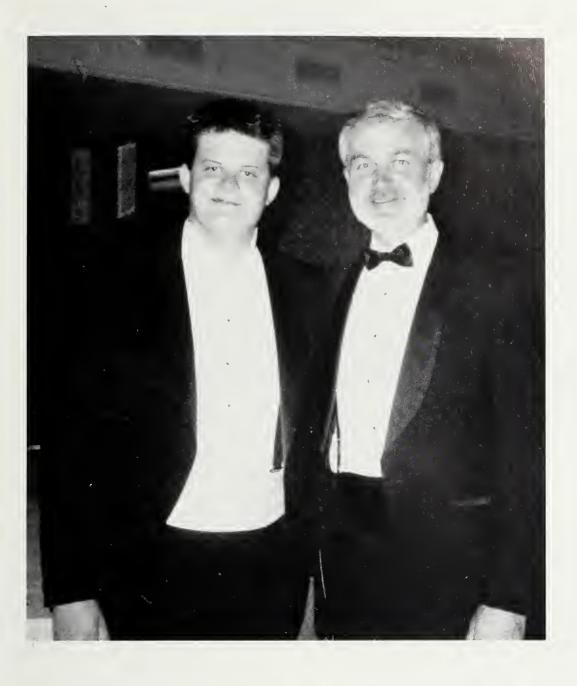

To The Class of 1990:

In his classic work The Prophet the poet Kahlil Gibran wrote: "When you part from your friend, you grieve not. For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain." During the summer of '86 you came to Newport "to get acquainted" with Salve Regina College during Orientation. Over the years the shared experiences, the classes and meetings, the parties and games, the joys and sorrows of human living, transformed those acquaintances into friendships. You have completed the chapter entitled "college years" and begun to record new experiences in the books of your lives.

I hope that this yearbook will provide you with a record of the years you chose to spend with all of us in Newport. Cherish the memories, the good times and the learning you shared with friends at Salve. While you may have parted our company, you really have left a part of yourselves with us. We know that because, as the poet says, "that which we love most in you is indeed clearer in your absence". For that we are grateful to you.

On behalf of everyone at Salve Regina College, I wish you well in your future endeavors. On a personal note I wish to thank the yearbook staff - particularly Erin Forbush the 1990 Editor, Frank Troiano the Business Manager, and Class President Eric Weliczko, for their outstanding efforts on behalf of the Class of '90. May your lives continue to be blessed with new friendships and new loves throughout the years to come.

Best to all of you,

John Rok Dean of Students

In Memory Of Brian Putney

1967-1987

He That Planteth A Tree Is The Servant Of God,
He Provideth A Kindness For Many Generations, And Faces
That He Hath Not Seen Shall Bless Him.
Henry Van Dyke

The Class Of 1990 Dedicates This Tree And Plaque In Memory Of Our Classmate Brian Putney. The Tree And Plaque Are Not To Be Sad Reminders, But As Symbols Of Hope And Life. And, Although We Suffered A Great Loss, The Tremendous Unity And Incredible Spirit We Gained By This Experience Will Live In Our Hearts Forever, As Will Brian.

Eric Weliczko

We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at last a drop which makes it run over; so in a series of kindnesses there is at last one which makes the heart run over.

The Salve Mission

As each of us received our acceptance letter from Salve, we thought our toughest college hurdle was over, at least so far. We had made it in, now we had four years to make friends and balance a few classes while investigating Newport.

Imagine our surprise when we discovered that on top of all this, we were expected to "become our best selves."

Not quite sure how to fulfill our "Salve Mission", many of us began cramming our courseloads and taking part in clubs. We began to see changes in ourselves. Things came together and our friendships became stronger.

As the years progressed, we discovered that we aren't the same people. We have all changed. And without even realizing it, we've fulfilled our missions and found our best selves.

-Beth Sharkey

NEWSFLASH! Over 30 couples were found lying on the floor of Ochre Court Ballroom on the 24th of February at 3:00 p.m. After 20 hours of toe-tapping and handclapping, bodies began dropping in exhaustion. Starting at 7 p.m., on a Friday Salve students energetically moved their feet to the DJ's music as many onlookers cheered them on. Throughout the dancathon, couples dressed for 13 themes, ranging from tie dye and toga to sports and dressSalve. Thanks to the support of various businesses, energy revivers were donated from such places as Pepperoni Express and Dunkin Donuts. It's an extra incentive to keep their feet moving, First and second place prizes were awarded to the dancers for each theme. As the hours wore on, the on-lookers became few, dancers began dropping and feet began slowing. The snowfall at dawn, along with a few brisk winds coming thru the balcony doors served as a "second wind" for the tiresome bunch. Ball tossing, and limboing along with vivacious midday spectators brought almost 20 couples to their final hour of victory. Their efforts raised $3000 for Lucy's Hearth, a homeless women's shelter.

"No, you may certainly NOT cut in," cries Dannielle McDuffee as she and her partner Brian Holliday begin their first hour.

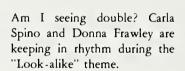

She's a grand 'ol flag, but a tired looking one at that as Brian Holliday and Moira Grogan march to "American Pie" during their final hours at the marathon.

"Excuse me sir, is this the Delta House?" asks Pete Marino.

Sophomores . . .

The past two years have been filled with interactions and experiences that have helped to shape our future endeavors as members of the Salve community. Through class participation and involvement we have bonded together as a class and united as a whole.

As a class, we, the Sophomores, enjoyed attending such events as dances, cookouts and ceremonies. Through these events and other social gatherings, the classes have come together to learn a great deal from each other.

The Sophomore class salutes especially you, the Seniors, as you graduate and move on to your bright futures. We, as a class, thank you for all your guidance, advice, support and laughter. Good luck Class of 1990, you will always be remembered.

Salve's Men's Basketball Team Has Spirit To Spare.

Asking any college team to change styles in mid-season, and still produce, might be unreasonable; but that's what Salve's men's coach Mike Raffa requested this year, and the Newporters responded. After losing big men Kent Katter (6'6") and Chris Unsworth (6'5") to injuries before Christmas, Salve scrapped its running game and opted for a controlled half-court offense, which led them to an overall record of 10-12, and a Conference record of 6-5.

Salve's softball team was indeed a force to be reckoned with this season. They made it to the semi-finals of the Commonwealth Coast Conference Tournament, and they closed the season with a record of 12-8 overall.

Coach John Dias gives some helpful advice.

Ready for action, set to move.

Lisa Dellaquila was a pitcher with power.

A slide with style.

Salve's Winning Baseball Team.

Salve had an incredible season as they hosted and got into the semi-finals of the seven-team Commonwealth Coast Conference Championship, as well as ending the season with a 14-10 record.

A pitch is worth a thousand words.

Getting the outs took teamwork and the team had plenty of that

A hit to heaven.

In position to play.

Graduation

The sun rose early that day dancing upon the water on its way up.
The tent flaps played in the wind.
Chairs sat solemn awaiting the crowd.

cap and gown hung anxiously in the room
as the sun hit the tassel
it breathed life to its form.
Memories of the past
were misty now.
What lied ahead
was all on their minds.

Finally the hour had arrived.

Seagulls flew above

singing their praises.

Not a seat was empty

nor a space anywhere.

Excitement filled the warm air.

Women held tissue

while fathers held cameras

and a look of pride.

I walked along the edge of the tent
and spotted you in your cap and gown.

I also held tissue camera and pride.
It had been along road.
But a path not a road
All we've done all we've shared.
The time had come to say goodbye
but never lose sight of the memories we shared.

Something's missing from your college days, but you can't put your finger on it?

Now you can.

You graduated without a college ring and never thought you'd miss it. But things are different now. Pride, success, achievement—everything symbolized by a college ring is more important to you than ever before. Especially the memories.

Here's your chance to order the same college ring we made for your graduating class. For complete details, call or write:
